

A blend of folk and contemporary sounds, Lilly Million's music has been described as soulful, honest and ahead of its time. Many who have encountered Lilly's music are intrigued by her off-the-wall presence, unique voice, originality and lyrical poetry.

*"Lilly has the ability to cause you to face your pain and give you hope for a better tomorrow"
Morena the Squire (TV personality and musician)*

Described as her best work so far, "Crazy believer" is Lilly Million's brand new sophomore album and is an eclectic body of art and musicality. Exploring various genres, the album does not hold back in any way and features various sounds ranging from afro, soul, soft rock, house and reggae.

Ever the story teller, once again, Lilly Million does not fail to deliver profoundly crafted lyrics carried by her sweet original melodies that tell of her very human experience, her love for people, purpose and ultimately God. Featured artists include American spoken word poet and musician, Janette...lkz. Zambian musical heavy weights, Pompi and Abel Chungu as well as South African rapper (and husband) Blaque Nubon

Lilly's songs from "Crazy Believer" can currently be heard on SABC 3's Soapie - Isidingo

An esteemed and controlled performer, Lilly has been described as having the ability to cause you to shed tears and burst out with laughter all at once. She has performed alongside the likes of Oliver Mtukudzi, Lira, The Muffinz, Nothende, Khaya Mthethwa, Arno Carstens, We Will Worship, Khaya Mthetwa and Doctor Victor to name a few.

Her versatility as an artist allows Lilly to perform eclectic and musically inspired sets with her 4 piece band as well as intimate soulful offerings, solo on her acoustic guitar. She has honed her craft and skill as a performer and managed to grace the stages of 8 African countries and has also performed at events in Europe as well as the USA.

One of her greatest achievements is the Mzansi Gospel Award Lilly received for “Best Female artist of the year “in 2015 for the release of her acoustic EP entitled “A Traveller’s Rest”

Her other work includes her debut album "On Love, Truth & Freedom" which she released in 2012 under her previous Label - Electromode.

Her 3 singles "Frontlines", "Better Things", and soulful ballad “Tell Me You Love Me”, recieved heavy rotation on radio including Jacaranda FM and East coast Radio. To date, multiple songs from the album are currently in use on the SABC 3 soapie Isidingo.

If you have never listened to Lilly Million, do not waste another minute. Lilly’s rich poetic lyrics expressively framed in simple melodies is bound to capture your attention.
